James Buttery Selected for Prestigious National Trial Lawyers Board

SAN LUIS OBISPO — Longtime local attorney James Buttery has been inducted into the prestigious American Board of Trial Lawyers (ABOTA), an influential national organization whose membership is limited to trial attorneys who meet certain high levels of achievement.

Buttery joined Andre, Morris and Buttery (AMB) in 1977 and is a partner with the firm. An experienced litigator, he is currently chairman of the Civil Litigation Practice Group at AMB and was instrumental in the opening of the company's office in Santa Maria.

During his career, Buttery has tried more than 50 civil cases to conclusion, including 20 civil jury cases. They have included boundary disputes, easement questions, real estate fraud and mobile home rent control, among others.

ABOTA is an invitation-only organization, and prospective members are required to have at least five years experience as trial lawyers, must have tried at least 10 civil jury trials and have additional litigation experience. The organization is dedicated to preserving the rights of individuals to have a trial by jury and tracks legislation that affects individuals' rights to a civil trial.

Andre, Morris & Buttery recently celebrated 60 years serving individuals and businesses on the Central Coast. Offices are located in San Luis Obispo, Santa Maria and Paso Robles.
