Christopher Carruthers Named Associate at Andre, Morris & Buttery

San Luis Obispo, CA – Christopher W. Carruthers has been named an associate at Andre, Morris & Buttery, capping a week that included his swearing in as a new attorney. Carruthers will be a member of the longtime local law firm's Civil Litigation Practice Group and Environmental and Land Use Practice Group.

Carruthers is a Southern California native whose interest in the Central Coast was fostered at Cal Poly, where he received both bachelor's and master's degrees in English. He went on to earn his J.D. degree from the University of Montana School of Law in 2008, with a certificate in Environmental and Natural Resources Law. While in law school, Carruthers participated on the Environmental Moot Court Team and was a Publishing Editor for the Public Lands and Natural Resources Law Review.

The new attorney was welcomed as an associate by Andre, Morris & Buttery in May 2009, after holding posts as law clerk and a summer associate with the Firm. He has been active locally in coaching various high school and club soccer teams in the San Luis Obispo area.

He is admitted to practice in all of the courts of the State of California.

Carruthers and his wife, dentist Dr. Michelle Macey, live in San Luis Obispo.

Andre, Morris & Buttery is the largest law firm in San Luis Obispo and has been taking care of business for over 60 years. The firm has offices in San Luis Obispo, Paso Robles and Santa Maria.
